FRIDAY MARCH 15 @ 6PM • UNITED PUBLIC WORKERS HALL.

PRESENTED BY ESTELLE FREEDMAN (STANFORD UNIVERSITY)
based on pioneering research by Allan Bérubé, award-winning author of Coming Out Under Fire and My Desire for History. Before Harvey Milk and the Coors boycott, before Gay Liberation, Stonewall and the Mattachine Society, there was the MCSU. A powerful story of rank-and-file union activism led by openly gay and gender non-conforming workers across lines of race and ethnicity. "Equality was in the air we breathed!"
