

WE ARE ONE

On April 4, 1968, Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. was assassinated in Memphis, Tennessee, where he had gone to stand with sanitation workers demanding their dream:

The right to bargain collectively for a voice at work and a better life.

The workers were trying to form a union with AFSCME.

On April 4, 2011, labor unions, civil rights organizations and community organizations across the nation will join together to honor Dr. King and his efforts with a day to "Stand in Solidarity."

Join us in solidarity with working people in Wisconsin, Ohio, Indiana, Michigan and dozens of other states where they are fighting to keep the very rights Dr. King gave his life for.
